Communion Breakfast Due This Sunday

By Ralph Diehl

The annual Communion Breakfast sponsored jointly by the Mission Crusade and the Sodality, will be held Sunday, April 23, 1950 at the Hotel Vermont. The distinguished Catholic Layman, Mr. Julian J. Reiss, of Lake Placid, N.Y. will address the gathering.

There will be a Mass at 8:00 a.m. in the College Chapel after which busses will be available for transportation to the Hotel for the 9:30 breakfast.

Reiss is an alumnus of Georgetown and Fordham University. He was appointed by Governor Dewey to the New York State Commission which opposed discrimination in 1945. In 1947, Reiss received an award as the outstanding white Catholic layman in the field of Interracial Justice. He received an Honorary Degree of Doctor of Law at Niagara University for his bork in labor relations.

This distinguished speaker is also a member of the Catholic Mission for Good Will which conducts forums in colleges and seminaries throughout the country. A past Grand Knight of the Lake Placic Council, Reiss is also a Faithful Navigator of the 4th Degree Knights. It is interesting to note that Reiss is the originator of Santa's Workshop at North Pole, Whiteface, Mt., N.Y.

A limited number of tickets will be available for $1.00.

Michaelman Staff To Meet Monday

There will be a special meeting of the MICHAELMAN staff at 4:30 Monday afternoon.

Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the advisability of holding a staff banquet sometime in May.

All students who have worked on the MICHAELMAN during the past year should be present Monday at the meeting which will be held in the MICHAELMAN office in Aquinas Hall.

MICHAELMAN staff members: check the bulletin board in the office for your assignments. All assignments must be turned in at the regular meeting Monday afternoon.

MASS AT 8
An eight o'clock Mass is being added each weekday morning in chapel for off and on campus students.

New K&K Play Ready; Opens Here Tuesday

" Light Up The Sky," the Spring production of the Knights and Knaves will be presented this Tuesday night In Austin Hall.

The bright new comedy by Moss Hart will be taken on the road and is the second major production of the dramatic society this year. Earlier the K&K produced the Shakespearean comedy " Twelfth Night."

Produced only last year in New York, " Light Up the Sky" shows the inimtable Hart at his satirical best. The world of the theatre is his target and the whipping dialogue he has given to the play snaps hungrily at the whims and fancies of show business and those living in it. Harst takes his title from a line by Old Scroob in the " Idle Jest" and the observation could be taken as a very fitting description of the play. " Mad sir? Ah, yes - mad indeed, but observe how they do light up the sky."

In casting for the comedy the Knights and Knaves have drawn upon veteran members as well as new players while female roles have been taken by girls from Trinity College and Burlington. Requiring a large cast, parts have been given to Pat Joyal, Florence and Pat Stancliff of Trinity, Connie Papin, Mary Polworth, and Florence Aumand. Bill Kennedy, Jim Carroll, Bob Lilly, Howard Lancour, John Swift and Tom Geno.

NOTICE
This is an austerity issue of the MICHAELMAN due to an extreme lack of:
1. time
2. money
3. energy

The night following the campus production the thespians swing downstate to Barre for the first road trip. The CYO of St. Monica's Parish which sponsored last year's " Kingdom of the Blind" is bringing the Knights and Knaves to Barre.

Directed by Rev. E. J. Tining, moderator of the dramatic society, " Light Up The Sky" will be stage managed by Dennis Scanlon Jack Flynn, Nick Tarrant, and Joe Blasie will comprise the stage crew. The settings for the play were constructed by Bernard Blase and Bernard Couture during the Easter holidays. Properties for the play were handled by Bill Heenehan who served in the same capacity for the Summer Theatre in 1949.

Curtain time for the single performance of " Light Up The Sky" will be 8:30 Tuesday night in Austin Hall.

All Classes and Clubs Must Elect This Week

Friday, May 5, is election day at St. Michael's.

At its last meeting the Student Council set this date for the school general election.

All classes will ballot this day for their presidents and for their class officers. In addition, all clubs are supposed to hold their elections by this date so that the new club presidents can take office in the Student Council which will begin functioning immediately after the election.

Fuller details will be contained in next week's MICHAELMAN but in general the election system works in this manner:

Each class elects three candidates for the Council. From these three, one is chosen by the Electoral Committee which is made up of the Dean of Men, Dean of Studies, a lay member of the faculty, the Student Council moderator, and the presidents of the three upperclasses. All class representatives are elected for two year terms.

At the same election the students will have a chance to vote whether they wish to retain the Student Council constitution. The constitution was only provisionally ratified last year and must be approved this year.

Six Michaelmen Produce Play In Worcester

Six St. Michael's students traveled to Clark University, Worcester, Mass., during the Easter recess to present a play before the University drama students.

Under the direction of Mary Mitchell, a student at Clark, the Michaelmen presented Frank Ford's modern one act play " Lucifer at Large."

One of the requirements of the drama course at Clark is that each student pick and direct a one act play for presentation before the drama student body. Final grades are based largely on the student

Blind Pianist To Play Here

By Charles Randall

Those who enjoyed the pianist Joseph Dursi earlier this month are due for another grand treat on April 30th.

On that day in Austin Hall Jimmy Osborn, a fourteen year-old blind pianist from Romford Essex, England will give a concert. It was this same Jimmy Osborn who won the hearts of the Yanks in the 9th A.A.F. stationed in Essex during World War II.

Jimmy Osborn who was born blind commenced his most remarkable career at three. Since that time he has progressed rapidly and steadily. It was the men of the 9th Air Force who started this young Briton on the road to fame. In July of '45, Jimmy Osborn arrived in New York. A few days later he enrolled in

Christopher Movement Comes to St. Michael's

by John Stewart

On Monday Night, April 24, an unusual opportunity is being afforded to St. Michael's students, when at 8:30 Father James Keller is going to speak at Austin Hall on the newly organized Christopher Movement.

Before the lecture at 8:00 Father Keller's recent movie on the Christophers will be shown.

There will be a limited number of seats open to the public for the lecture itself.

For some 10 years prior to 1945 Father Keller had been working towards the present simple formula of getting " little" people to do " big" things -- of encouraging the average person to reach beyond his or her own small circle for the big world outside. This formula stresses action by those who believe in individual responsibility for the common good of all. The Christopher thesis is that complaining and criticizing accomplish little. Their motto is well expressed in the words of the old Chinese proverb: " Better to light one candle than to curse the darkness."

Sensing the urgency of the challenge to our God-given freedoms, just recently, under Father Keller's direction, the Christophers have begun a program of Career Guidance Schools which will be established in various parts of the country, whose aim is to develope a consciousness of PURPOSE and DIRECTION in sound-thinking persons of all faiths.

Father Keller is the author of the recent best-seller, " You Can Change The World," " Men of Maryknoll," and a new book just published by Doubleday this Fall, entitled " Three Minutes A Day." Articles on the Christophers have appeared from time to time in such magazines as READER'S DIGEST, OMNIBOOK, TIME, NEWSWEEK and other national publications.

This coming Sunday we here at St. Michael's are in for a rare treat. It isn't often we get a guest speaker, and it's seven less frequent when we have one of the renown of Father James Keller. This man comes with a message that we all will benefit from hearing. Father Keller is a missionary with a new kind of mission goal. And he speaks our language.

Father Keller knows what he wants to say and how to say it without any superfluous jargon. He has a clear-cut message and knows how we want to hear it. Plenty of down to earth facts; using as examples people that we all know. The message that Father Keller brings is applicable to all levels of society. It hits home at every one. It is of particular concern to Catholic college students. Father Keller comes to us with the story and aims of the far-famed, fast growing Christopher movement.

There is no need going to any great length in speaking of the Christophers. Most are well enough acquainted with this movement and Father Keller will go into greater detail about it during his talk.

Father Keller started the Christophers in 1945. His aim is to develop in a small percentage of people a deep sense of personal responsibility and initiative. These men and women are out to combat the evils in the world by peaceful means. The whole idea of the movement is to get little people to do big things. To encourage the average person to step out from his own small circle and make himself felt in the world. The Christophers carry all men the message of peage, fair-play, brotherhood of man, the rights of the individual, dependence of man on God; all the principles that guarantee a peaceful world. Christophers develop in themselves that rare virtue of dling, instead of just complaining and criticizing all the time. They are out to " change the world." They want it to be a better world. We all hope to live in better days. Father Keller knows everyone can help to make this aim come true and he's coming here to tell us what part we can play.

Question: " Is War With Russia Inevitable?"

FRANK BIONDI (FRESHMAN)
NEW BRITAIN, CONN.

War with Russia is inevitable for the simple reason that world dominance is clearly stated in the " Communist Manifesto." There is only one way of hoping for peace and that is by the bringing back of the people to God. The Soul of Russia, which I believe deeply spiritual, needs a rebirth. This spirituality is clearly reflected in the writings of Dostievsky and Tolstoy. If we as Catholics would only say the Rosary for the conversion of Russia this would be attained.

Bernard G. Leclerc (Senior)
SANFORD, MAINE

I think that war with Russia can be avoided only if Russia and America get together and evolve a plan which both countries pledge to obey.

So far plans have been made by each country but they keep changing them, which in the end will only lead to war in the near future.

The basic conclusion is a plan and the following of this plan for the avoidance of future wars.

FRANK GOOD (SENIOR)
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

No, I think that if we continue to send aid to the countries of Europe and Asia that are endangered by the Communistic threat, peace will be maintained. If we cut down our aid or stop it altogether it will only be a matter of years until the U.S. is Russia's only opposition and then war will be the only means of preserving our independence. If we reach that situation we could easily be defeated as we would be opposing the world alone.

Fr. Larkin Sets Softball Plans

By Fran Hoben

Plans for the Intramural softball league are all but completed, Rev. Garrett Larkin has announced. According to Fr. Larkin the league will begin operations on May 1 with fifteen or possibly sixteen teams entered, each playing at least four games. A playoff will definitely be staged during the last week of May.

The following teams will compete: St. James (2), St. John's (2), St. William's, St. Pat's, Old Hall II, III, IV, Aquinas, Senior Hall, the Faculty, Burlington O.C., Essex Junction O.C., and Winooski O.C. St. Leo's is a question mark at this time due to the many activities in which the Senior Class is concerned. However, there is a good chance that they will field a representative ten.

The games themselves will start at six o'clock on weekdays with Sunday afternoons and evenings being used for postponed contests. However, should two teams be able to field a complete line-up before six, they would be permitted to play in the afternoon if desired. Regulation softball rules will be in effect and seven innings will be the duration. Two diamonds will be used and both are being readied for opening day.

IMPORTANT: All managers or team captains must submit their list of fifteen (15) players to Fr. Larkin before April 24. This is most necessary in order to draw up the schedule and begin operations on time.

director's craftmanship in overall staging, interpretation and direction. Miss Mitchell in selecting " Lucifer" was aided in general direction by Walt Wallace, Pittsfield, Mass., senior, who directed the K&K men through brief rehearsals prior to the holidays.

The six Knights and Knaves members who journeyed to Clark were: Bill Heenehan, Springfield, Mass.; Paul Heinig, Clinton, Mass.; Bob Lilly, No. Adams, Mass.; Howard Lancour, West Springfield, Mass.; John Swift, Rochester, N.Y. and Tom Lambert, Springfield, Mass.

Arriving at Clark Easter Wednesday morning the Michaelmen spent the day rehearsing, working on lighting effects and building stage props.

Paul Heinig produced interesting lighting results through the use of flash bulbs. The photo bulbs were set off with a startling and weird effect at dramatic high points in the plot. Miss Grace Valardi, a student at the New England Conservatory of Music, handled musical effects while Lucille Vachon assisted Miss Mitchell in staging the play.

Sophomores and Juniors interested in summer jobs are asked to contact Fr. Hebert's Office, Old Hall, 116.

Jack Berry would like to obtain pictures taken in past years of the " Parade of the Horribles." The pictures can be turned in to the Public Relations Office.

Juniors and Seniors Planning for Weekend

With only three weeks before the Senior Weekend, Jack Berry, Senior Weekend Chairman and Joe Shea, Junior Class president have been busy drawing up the final plans for the Weekend and Prom.

The committee for the senior week end met again Friday evening to put the finishing touches to its plans.

The traditional " Parade of the Horribles" will get under way Saturday afternoon May 13. In addition to the parade a series of skits will be presented on the same day. Tentative plans for other activities are still being considered promising a week end of entertainment.

For the juniors, the chief activity this week was preparing the decorations for the Prom, Friday May 12. Decorations chairmen are Dick Johnson and Ed Leavy.

Tickets for the prom retail for six bucks per couple and are being sold on and off campus. Ticket salesmen include: Bill O'Hearn, Essex Junction; Bob Gelinas, Andy Scanlon and Jerry Cassidy, Burlington; Pat Cavanaugh, Winooski; Jim Whitlock, St. Pat's, 202; Ed Millette, St. John's, 211; Frank Cotter, St. James', 104; Charlie Randall, Old Hall, 209; Bill Acton, St. Leo's 201; Jim McKown, St. William.

As baseball takes its place on the college sport scene, we'll draw one more breath out of basketball before putting the cage sport in moth balls for another year. Just before the Easter Vacation we contacted the State Cage Coaches and had them pick an All-State Basketball Team. We feel that a team picked by the coaches is the best one because the mentors are in the best position to judge just how much a player is worth to his team. Here's the team that the coaches picked this year.

Ted Burzenski, St. Mike's
Dan Scott, Middlebury
Al Niemann, U.V.M.
Jim Farley, St. Mike's
Ed Kotlarczyk, U.V.M.

The coaches seemed to agree pretty much on who the top players in the State were. Burzenski, Farley, Scott and Kotlarczyk were all named to first string berths by all the coaches and Niemann drew the votes of three of the mentors. The second team was made up of Al Merrick of U.V.M., Paul Stapleton of St. Mike's, Buck Bovee and Ed Thompson of Norwich and Ed Works of Middlebury. Honorable mention went to Dan McCarthy, Bob Kateley and Ed Markey of the Knights and to Chet Nightingale of Middlebury.

FOOTBALL AND BASEBALL

The Hilltop was a beehive of activity this week with the Football and Baseball teams both getting into shape. The footballers, under Bill Piscione were sweating off the excess weight and the diamond crew were busy getting ready for this weekend's openers with Siena and Amherst. After this weekend the Knights are idle until next Friday when they square off against Boston College at Boston.

" I should like to compliment St. Michael's on the spirit and interest displayed by your team and the students during the recent basketball game of the N.C.I.T. I was impressed, and I'm certain most of those present must have been, when St. Michael's team during the fading minutes of the game in the face of almost certain defeat continued to play with the same fire and drive with which they started the game. Their lasting spirit on Wednesday night has been surpassed by none of the tournament teams and was matched only by that of the student cheering section. St. Michael's display of spirit and good play was quite impressive and highly commendable."

The above is a paragraph from a letter received by Fr. Dupont from Mr. Joseph A. Powers, a resident of Watervliet, N.Y.

Knights To Meet B.C. This Friday

By Dan Tarpy

Sitting on the Knights bench before a practice session an onlistner can learn many things, like, for instance, how the boys from the Hilltop intend to trip the high flying Boston College Eagles next Friday when they invade Alumni Field down in Newton, Mass.

All sorts of stuff fly around out there, none of which is too important, but it's all good listening and nottoo hard to believe.

Bobby Duffy and Eddie Markey who already hold a basketball decision over the Eagles this year, usually lead the way either by demonstrating (swinging a bat or going through pitching motions) or relating how their mates will again clip the Eagles wings. Markey insists that slick fielding and about seven runs will turn the applecart, while Duffy an ex-chucker states that the pitching department will turn the trick.

Anyway, when the team takes the field Friday they will be a much better balanced club than the one which was clubbed 11-1 by the Eagles last season. New faces will be viewed in every position outside of the right field post where Winooski's Tom Sullivan will patrol the green pastures. Flanked on Sullivan's right will be Bob Duffy and Jack Cronin, a representative of Hearst All Star Team a couple of years back, should make the fans forget all about Bill Hart in left field. With all due respect to Hart's Cub contract, it was a known fact that Billy was capable of playing a fly ball into a home run, and liked them served up around his shoulders.

In center field will be Bob Duffy who needs no introduction and who is good enough to send Dick Fitzgerald scampering back to the first base position.

The infield around the horn for this all important tilt will find Jim Garvey at 3 B., Eddie Markey at S.S., John Provost at 2 B. and Dick Fitzgerald at 1 B.

The double play combination of Markey and Provost was what Coach "Doc" Jacobs sorely needed last year, but had to be satisfied with Carl "Twinkletoes" Zucknieovich and Jim Fleming, both of whom were lucky to get one on a twin killing.

With Jim Garvey covering the hot corner, the Knights have come up with their best third sacker in many a moon. An ever dangerous stickman Jim can also rifle that pellet across the diamond in nothing flat.

In all probability either Ray Doherty or Bill "Rube" Tierney will get the nod for the mound duties against the Eagles. Doherty, a product of Newton, Mass., limited the B.C. potent batsmen to three runs after relieving Jim Devaney in last season's encounter.

Donning the tools of ignorance will be John "Husky" Donovan, the Staten Island boy who is a four year veteran and a master of pitchers in every respect.

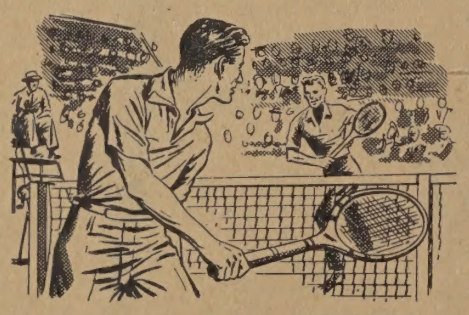
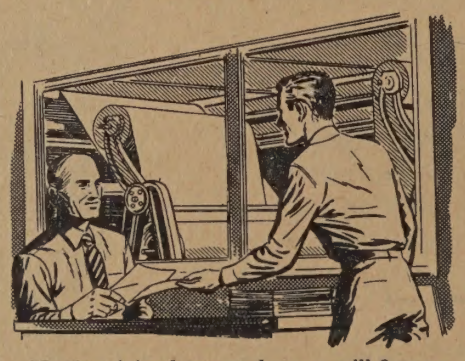
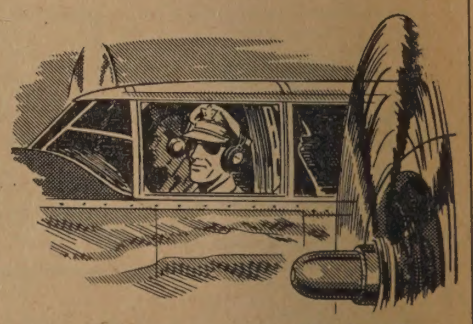
Capt. Paul Buskey, Middlebury, '38 Air Intelligence, U.S. Air Force



An excellent student at Middlebury College, Vermont, Paul found time to win the coveted All Sports Trophy in his senior year. He graduated in June, 1938.



He then joined a coated paper mill firm as research and control man. Pearl Harbor changed all that—Paul went to Maxwell Field to begin Aviation Cadet training.



An outstanding Cadet, 2nd Lt. Paul Buskey was held over as an instructor after graduation. Then he was assigned as a pilot in the Air Transport Command.

His big plane education was topped with 23 missions over the far-famed "Hump," flying C-54 transports. After V-J Day, he stayed on in the Far East until March of 1948—specializing in Air Intelligence.

Back home, after accepting a Regular Air Force Commission, Captain Buskey went to Air Tactical school, was there rated an outstanding student, and won assignment to Command and Staff school.

Today, Captain Buskey is an Air Intelligence Officer on MATS Headquarters Staff at Andrews Air Force Base near Washington, D. C. He looks forward to a rewarding future in the U. S. Air Force.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider the many career opportunities as a pilot or navigator in the U. S. Air Force. Procurement Teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain these career opportunities. Watch for them. You may also get full details at your nearest Air Force Base or U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Att: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.
